

Reference Services

Library staff members will make every effort to answer reference inquiries. Live chat reference service is available throughout Pennsylvania at www.askherepa.org.

Storytime Programs

Children's librarians present storytime sessions for young children during sessions beginning in the spring and fall. Information is available at litzlibrary.org / Click on Youth Services or call the library at (717) 626-2255.

Story Connection—Dial a Story

By dialing the phone number (717) 295-BOOK (2665) children age 4 and older will have direct access to their own storyteller. Stories are also available in Spanish by calling (717) 291-NINO (6466).

Summer Reading Program

The library offers activities designed to encourage reading during the summer months. Children and adults who read books and participate in literacy-based activities receive prizes.

Tax Forms

Supplies of common federal, state and local tax forms are available in the library. Other forms may be downloaded from the Internet or photocopied for a fee of 10¢ per page.

Telescope

Thanks to a contribution from the Astronomy Enthusiasts of Lancaster County, patrons age 18 and older may borrow a telescope for one week using their library membership card. For information contact Community Relations Coordinator Diane Guscott at (717) 626-2255 ext. 227.

Volunteer Opportunities

From shelving books to weeding flower beds, many volunteer activities are available at the library. For more information ask at the circulation desk or go to litzlibrary.org / Click on Get Involved / Look for the Volunteer link.

Wowbrary

Find out what's new at the library. Sign up for Wowbrary, a free weekly email newsletter, on the library's eResources tab.

Lititz Public Library
651 Kissel Hill Rd.
Lititz, PA 17543
(717) 626-2255
litzlibrary.org

Hours:

Monday—Thursday	9:00am-8:00pm
Friday	9:00am-6:00pm
Saturday	9:00am-4:00pm

Directions

The Lititz Public Library is located at the corner of 6th Street and Kissel Hill Road in Lititz, PA. From Route 501, turn east on 6th Street and proceed for about 1/2 mile.

More driving options and a map can be found on the library's website. Go to www.litzlibrary.org/ Click on About / Click on Directions.

at
YOUR SERVICE

A directory of programs, services and opportunities offered through the

Lititz
Public Library

Book Sales

The Friends of the Library sponsor an ongoing used book sale in the library during the regular hours of operation and multi-day sales events in early March and early September.

Calendar of Events

Copies of the library's calendar of events are available in the library and online at litzlibrary.org / Click on Calendar.

Check It Out!

- Photo ID with a Lancaster County address is required to sign up for a library membership card. A library card or photo identification must be presented to borrow items.
- An after hours book return is located to the right of the main entrance.
- Patrons may use their personal library account to renew or reserve items using the online catalog.
- Patrons who provide an email address will receive email holds notices and date due reminders.

Collection of Resources

The library provides resources for children and adults to enjoy in the library or borrow, including books (& eBooks), newspapers, magazines, audiobooks, feature films & documentaries on DVD, music on CD and jigsaw puzzles.

Computers + Wireless Access

Public computers are available in the library. WiFi is available. Black & white printouts are 10¢ per page.

Contact Information

The library is located at 651 Kissel Hill Road , Lititz, PA 17543. The telephone number is (717) 626-2255. The website is found at litzlibrary.org. Library Director Susan Tennant can be reached by email at stennant@litzlibrary.org.

Contributions

Charitable contributions are an important part of the library's fundraising plan. The library is a 501 (c)3 nonprofit organization and contributions are tax deductible. Online donations are most welcome. Go to litzlibrary.org and click on the Get Involved tab.

Copier

Self-serve, black & white photocopies are available for 10¢ per page.

Downloadable eBooks + Audiobooks

People with a Lititz Public Library membership have access downloadable eBooks and audiobooks. To download a book or audiobook, go to litzlibrary.org and click on the eResources tab.

TumbleBooks© is in an interactive library of animated books for preschoolers, beginner readers and older independent readers to enjoy online. Go to litzlibrary.org / Click on eResources / Click on Databases / Type in your library card barcode number / Scroll to TumbleBooks.

Foreign Language Instruction

Build conversational skills with Pronunciator, an online suite of interactive resources. A library membership card number accesses instruction for 80 languages using the online learning resource Click on eResources and choose Pronunciator.

Friends of the Library

The Friends group supports the library through advocacy and fundraising. To learn more go to litzlibrary.org . Click on Get Involved.

Genealogy + Local History

Genealogy and local history resources can be found in the library's local history room.

Access historic issues of the Lititz Express and Lititz Record Express newspapers covering years from 1877 through 2001 online. Go to litzlibrary.org, click on the What We Offer tab and look for Genealogy Room.

Gift-A-Book + Wish List

A Gift-a-Book donation purchases library books in memory of a departed loved one or to commemorate a special person.

Wish List items include furniture, publications and supplies that can be sponsored for purchase.

Holidays + Schedule Changes

For changes in hours due to inclement weather, holidays or other emergencies, call (717) 626-2255 and press 6, Schedule Changes.

Homework Help

Students from kindergarten through college can get live, one-on-one chat assistance with homework from certified teachers using Tutor.com. Check eResources/Click on Databases on the library's website.

Magazine Exchange

Bring used magazines in good condition for others to enjoy. Take away donations to read and enjoy.

Mobile App

Search the catalog, place holds, renew items, learn about popular titles discussed in the media. Go to <https://lancasterlibraries.org/mylibrary>.

Museum Passes

Explore local museums with free museum passes available to borrow for one week using an adult library membership card. (Museum passes are sponsored by the Eiserer-Hickey Fund of the Lancaster County Community Foundation.)

One-on-One Assistance

Looking for assistance with basic computer skills, Internet searches or library resources? Call Special Services Coordinator Linda Skelly at (717) 626-2255 ext. 228, to select a mutually agreeable time to meet and work through computer or research-based interactions.

Online Resources + Tutorials

Online resources are available for enrichment and research, including live homework help, genealogy database, online catalog of library resources, online book clubs and research databases. Go to litzlibrary.org / Click on eResources.

Outreach

The Youth Services Director visits preschools, summer camps, workshops and other venues to present story time programs for young children or continuing education instruction for child care professionals. Contact Karen Payonk at (717) 626-2255 ext. 223.

Puzzle Exchange

Bring used jigsaw puzzles for others to enjoy. Takeaway donations for hours of entertainment at home.